

(Mr. BURTON of Indiana addressed the House. His remarks will appear hereafter in the Extensions of Remarks.)

HONORING THE LIVES OF FREDA JONES AND OFFICER CLARK

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentlewoman from Texas (Ms. JACKSON-LEE) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, just a week ago last Saturday I visited with the family of a young woman who may not have been known in our community in Houston, Texas, maybe a few weeks ago. Just a young mother with two wonderful children, one a 3-month-old daughter and one a 10-year-old son, hard working, trying to provide for them. Her life became intimately intertwined with our departed and dear friend, Officer Clark.

For just about 10 days ago, Houston Police Officer Clark lost his life in a heroic attempt to save Freda Jones's life in a horrible and brutal robbery in our community.

Just this past week we buried Officer Clark, and I paid tribute to him, although I was not able to attend his going-home service because of business here in Washington. But through my office we shared with his wonderful family how much we appreciated his bravery and his service, how much we appreciated his love for his community, the fact that he was a consummate police officer.

Now, within 24 hours we will bury Freda Jones, who, listening to her family both Saturday and Sunday at a prayer vigil for her, I have come to understand her as a wonderful young woman, someone who simply wanted to provide for her family in working in the job she was working, innocently opening the office of a check cashing office by herself, taking up the responsibilities of another employee because that employee had been injured in a car accident. She was always a willing person, as we understand. She was a person who loved her family. She was, likewise, a person who brought the family together. She was certainly like your neighbor.

And so I would like to say to the Jones family, all of her brothers and sisters, her mother and father, her mother and father lost another child to brutality or brutal act of murder just a few years ago. And now they lost a cherished daughter to a brutal robbery, an unnecessary, callous act of murder.

And all of the perpetrators should be brought to justice because they took the life of a young woman who simply wanted to raise her children to make a decent living in this Nation.

So I think it is appropriate that as we honor so many heroes, we are so grateful for the young men and women who serve us in the United States military.

I had the opportunity to visit some of our injured soldiers at Bethesda Hospital this morning. We are grateful for them. We pray for their families. We pray for the families of MIAs. We pray for the families of the POWs. We pray for the families of those who lost their lives. And every day in America there are heroes as well. Because Freda Jones lost her life by trying to fend off these robbers by calling the police. And I imagine in the act of calling the police, her life was taken. And then Officer Clark who responded, or was responding, had his life taken.

What a terrible testimony to the freedom of America. But we will keep pressing forward honoring heroes, local heroes like Freda Jones and Officer Clark. And to the Houston community, I offer my deepest sympathy to the family that will mourn tomorrow as she will be laid to rest. I say to you that you have at least had a wonderful time in her life and as well the wonderful memories; and, yes, you have her two beautiful children and this wonderful extended family.

I hope that you, the Jones family and the Clark family, will find strength in each other. You are forever bonded together. And I hope you will know that the Houston community, the 18th Congressional District appreciates so much that you lived, but also that your life tragically was sacrificed but it will not ever be forgotten. We will remember, and we will work together to fight against the brutal and criminal acts that sick minds think they can perpetrate on our communities without paying the price.

We hope justice will be rendered. But most of all, Freda Jones, we hope that you will have a peaceful going-home service, recognizing that the community loved you and will continue to show its love to your family and to your children.

□ 1430

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. BURGESS). Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Arizona (Mr. FRANKS) is recognized for 5 minutes.

(Mr. FRANKS of Arizona addressed the House. His remarks will appear hereafter in the Extensions of Remarks.)

MURDER OF CUBAN FREEDOM SEEKERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Florida (Mr. FOLEY) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. FOLEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today once again to talk about one of the last hostile regimes on the planet, an island 90 miles to the south of my home State of Florida, Cuba.

For well over 40-plus years, Fidel Castro has time and time again shown his reprehensible disregard for the safety and welfare of his own people. His tyrannical regime has forced countless innocent people to risk their lives to seek the shores of the United States. What is worse, these people go to the furthest of extremes, even placing other countrymen at risk in order to seek freedom.

On April 2, in another one of the countless stories of Cubans trying to seek refuge, a group of three men attempted to take over a ferry ship and force it to go to the United States. Though I am in no way supportive of hijacking or putting others at risk, it is clear from our history with this oppressive Nation that its people will do almost anything for just a taste of freedom.

The men were prosecuted on Tuesday, those three men, in summary trials for very grave acts of terrorism and given only a few days to appeal their sentences. This pathetic excuse for a judicial system never gave these men a chance. I must report to this body that, earlier today, these three men were executed.

Mr. Speaker, these actions were not that of terrorists but those of people seeking freedom. It is clear that these men never intended to harm anyone. All they wanted was a chance at what millions of Cubans have been thirsting for since Fidel Castro took control and took power, and that is freedom, a right we in this country enjoy and a right we are fighting for today in Iraq. Though these acts should have been punished, the penalty was extreme, barbarous, even by the most strict of standards.

I have fought on this floor against terrorism all my life, and I will not accept it in any form, but this execution today was clearly a message to the Cuban people that freedom is not an option.

To those colleagues of mine who have suggested over the past year-and-a-half that we open trade and opportunity with Fidel Castro, they need to look at this material and see that this man executed three people today. Would these same Members offer a peaceful resolution to Saddam Hussein who I consider equally heinous as Fidel Castro? Would they suggest going to do trade with Saddam? Let us look at what Fidel Castro is all about, and let us recognize what danger he puts his own people in.

We must continue what we do by upholding the sanctions and further limiting U.S. government involvement with this rogue Nation. The people of Cuba deserve a democracy. Their leader is a tyrant, a dictator and now, based on this evidence, a murderer. Many of us have known that. My colleagues, the gentleman from Florida (Mr. LINCOLN DIAZ-BALART), the gentleman from Florida (Mr. MARIO DIAZ-BALART) and the gentlewoman from Florida (Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN), have all been telling this body about the horrors of the oppression, of the silencing of people merely trying to get a democracy in place in that Nation.

Mr. Speaker, if anyone must be put in front of a firing squad it is Mr. Castro himself for these despicable acts.

So I ask and urge my colleagues to be as outraged as we are in Florida. This was murder of three citizens. This was murder, a trial of 3 days, an appeal of 24 hours and a firing squad a day later.

This is the Nation we want to do business with? This is the Nation we want to trade with? This is a person my colleagues want to ship goods and medicine to? Prop up his regime? I think not.

HONORING WEST POINT CLASSMATES

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. SHIMKUS) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. SHIMKUS. Mr. Speaker, I take this 5 minutes to talk about an historical trend in this country that ties together those who have come before us in the past and those who are serving today, and I speak about the long gray line and those individuals who have served at West Point.

Many of us know that West Point celebrated its 200th anniversary last year, 200th anniversary of creating leaders of character to serve in our Nation and that commitment by this country to have a professional military institution that helps train leaders of character to lead our young men and women into battle but also understands how to deal with the current civil military operations that are occurring is a great credit to this country and one that we need to remember.

Many of us know the great names of Lee and Grant and Eisenhower and Patton, MacArthur, those who have gone there before, but I want to brag, if I may, about my classmates, graduates of the class of 1980 who are serving so admirably currently now in Iraq. They probably would not like me to be doing this, but I take this opportunity as a Member of Congress to speak in pride about my classmates.

I brought down my graduation yearbook, and although many of my colleagues cannot see it, I turn to a page and a familiar picture for those of us who have been following the briefings. We have a young Vince Brooks, first captain of the class of 1980. Yes, it is the same Vince Brooks who is giving the briefings over in Qatar on a daily basis talking about our command.

The line of my classmates is long and very grand in their services, and I want to recognize them all here.

Lieutenant Colonel (promotable) John Agoglia, J5 Plans CENTCOM; Colonel (promotable) Chuck Anderson, Chief of Staff, 32nd Army Air and Missile Defense Command. I mentioned Brigadier General Vince Brooks, Deputy for Operations and Coalition spokesman. Colonel Dave Brown, G3 section, V Corp, Iraq; Lieutenant Colonel Curt Cheeseman, J5 Plans, CENTCOM; Colonel Perry Clawson, Commander of the 1186th Transportation Terminal Brigade; John Davis, who is in the CENTCOM area of operation; Pat Donahue; Lieutenant Colonel Bruce Dow, HQ, Stateside; Lieutenant Colonel Bill Duffy, Commander, Task Force 513 Military Intelligence.

I want to pause here to say that many of my classmates are active duty and have served now over 20 years. Many of them are serving continually as reservists or members of the National Guard. We cannot tell the difference when I read this list because of the one Army philosophy that joins Active, Reserve and Guardsmen.

Lieutenant Colonel Dale Egger, Commander of 3rd Battalion, 289th Training Support Brigade, Stateside; Jim Embrey, in Kuwait; Colonel Mark Eshelman, 3rd Army, CENTCOM; Lieutenant Colonel T.J. Farrell, Force Protection Officer, 143rd TRANSCOM in Kuwait; Colonel Tim Glaeser, Commander, 11th ADA Brigade, Kuwait; Major Curt Grayer, Deputy Commander, 310th Personnel Support Group; Lieutenant Colonel Vern Green, Commander, 1181st Transportation Terminal Battalion; Colonel Ben Hodges, Commander, 1st Battalion, 101st Airborne Division; Lieutenant Colonel Frank Hudson, assignment undisclosed, 5th Special Forces Group, somewhere in the area of operation; Lieutenant Colonel Doug Lobdell, commander, 361st Training Support Brigade; Lieutenant Colonel Jan Kozlowski, C7 engineer, Kuwait; Lieutenant Colonel Mark Kucera, Forward Engineer Support Team; Colonel Mike Linnington, Commander, 2nd Brigade, 101st Airborne Division; Colonel Dave MacLean, J5-E, CENTCOM; Colonel Steve Mains, Chief, JFCOM J9, Lessons Learned Team, CENTCOM; Dr. Major Kathy Mathews, who is the wife of one of my classmates, Johnny Ham, who is a brigade surgeon in the 108th Brigade; Lieutenant Colonel Tom Miller, Civil Affairs Officer, en route to CENTCOM; Lieutenant Colonel Paul Oettinger, Commander of the 195th Contract Support Detachment, Kuwait; Colonel John Peabody, Commander, 3rd Infantry Division; Colonel Dave Perkins, Commander, 2nd Brigade, 3rd Infantry Division, Baghdad, Iraq; Colonel Tony Puckett, J5, Kuwait; Lieutenant Colonel Willie Ramos, Commander, 345th Rear Area Operations Center; CW3 Kathy Silvia, en route to CENTCOM; Colonel (promotable) Joe Votel, Commander of the 75th Ranger Regiment, location undisclosed; Kurt Westerman, en route to CENTCOM.

I am very proud of our classmates and those who are helping to support them here at home.

The West Point Alma Mater reads like this. Actually it is a song, and it is appropriate.

Hail, Alma Mater dear,
To us be ever near,
Help us thy motto bear
Through all the years,
Let Duty be well performed,
Honor be e'er untarned,
Country be ever armed,
West Point, by thee.

Guide us, thy sons, aright,
Teach us by day, by night,

To keep thine honor bright,
For thee to fight.
When we depart from thee,
Serving on land or sea,
May we still loyal be,
West Point, to thee.

And when our work is done,
Our course on earth is run,
May it be said, "Well done;
Be thou at peace."
E'er may that line of gray
Increase from day to day,
Live, serve and die, we pray,
West Point, for thee.

I am tremendously proud of my classmates who are serving in the area of operation and throughout the world. They have done great credit to this country, this Nation, the people of Iraq and our alma mater West Point. Their names will be etched in history with those who have served honorably and distinctively in service to their country.

May God bless them all and may God bless the United States of America.

NATIONAL FORMER PRISONER OF WAR RECOGNITION DAY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 7, 2003, the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. HOYER) is recognized for 60 minutes as the designee of the minority leader.

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, our brave men and women in uniform continue to risk their lives at this hour in Iraq, and let there be no mistake: there cause is noble.

They are disarming and deposing a ruthless tyrant who has brutalized the Iraqi people for more than 20 years, and who has threatened the security of the Middle East region and the world.

As the result of the courage, sacrifice, patriotism and professionalism of our American Armed Forces—as well as our Coalition allies—the Iraqi people have broken free of Hussein's stranglehold.

Who could not be moved by the scenes broadcast from Baghdad, where thousands of newly liberated Iraqi citizens celebrated Hussein's defeat?

However, danger still lurks around every corner. Thus, we pray for a successful conclusion to this war and our troops' safe return.

We also pray for the loved ones and families of the American servicemen and servicewomen who will not be returning safely to our shores; those who have given their lives for their Nation and the cause of freedom.

And we say a special prayer for the seven Americans who are listed as prisoners of war and eight who are listed as missing.

As we come to this House floor to commemorate national former POW Recognition Day, which was observed this past Wednesday, April 9, let us join together and offer this solemn pledge: the United States of America shall never—never—rest until every single American who is believed to be in enemy hands is freed, and every single American who is missing is fully accounted for.

Freedom's defenders must never be forgotten, and thus our mission in Iraq is far from accomplished.